

Main concerns of the Europeans at a glance*

\* Concerns mentioned  $\geq 10\%$ , based on the "top 10 challenges" in Europe/ in clockwise direction: Germany mentioned the most concerns, Sweden the least

Comparison of Europeans' concern about unemployment with the actual unemployment rate (ILO) in %

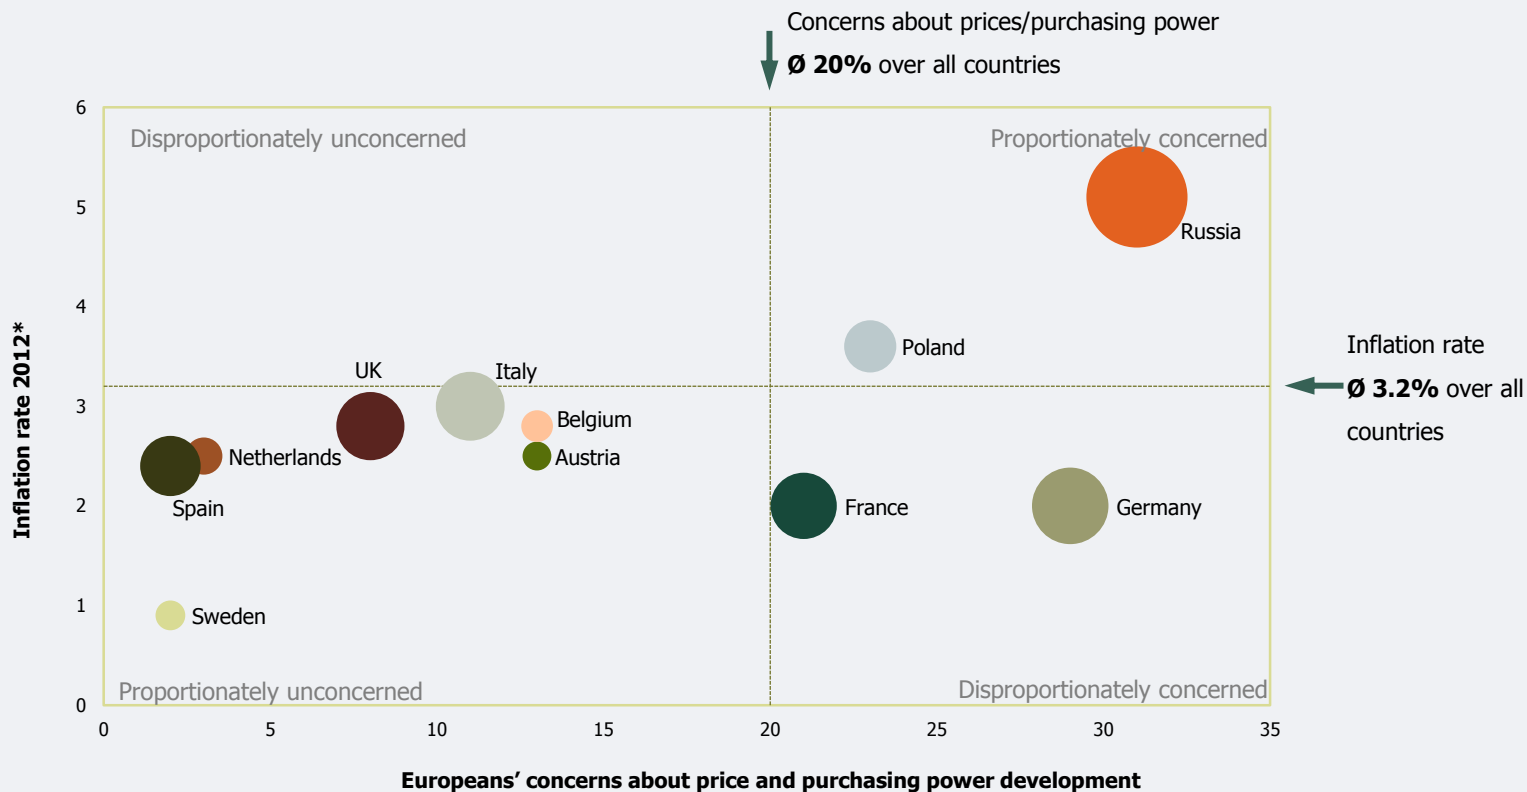

- Concerns about unemployment: unaided answers; in %; rounded; multiple responses possible -

Size of dots represents proportion of population
*OECD, as in April 2013

Comparison of Europeans' concern about price and purchasing power development with the actual inflation rate in %

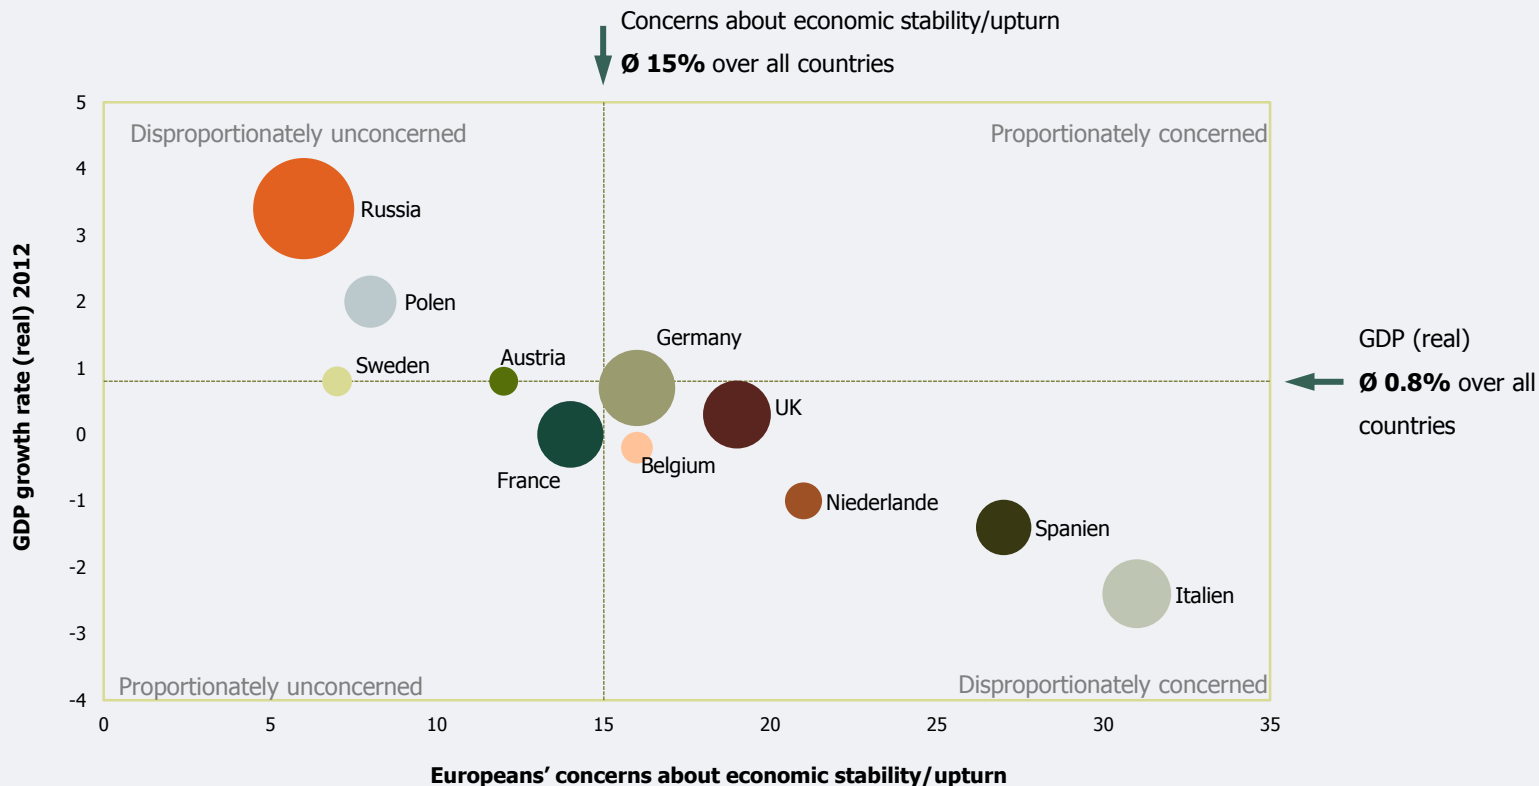

- Concern about price/purchasing power development: unaided answers; in %; rounded; multiple responses possible -

Size of dots represents proportion of population
*EUROSTAT, as in April 2013

Comparison of Europeans' concern about economic stability/upturn with the actual GDP growth rate (real) in %

- Concern about economic stability/upturn: unaided answers; in %; rounded; multiple responses possible -

Size of dots represents proportion of population
*OECD, as in April 2013

Challenges in Germany 2013 “Semantic Network”

Note :
 Increase by x percentage points in comparison to 2010 (only significant changes >1)

Challenges in Germany 2013 - Lifeworlds Top 10

- % of respondents mentioned as the most urgent problem to be solved in Germany: (unaided replies; in %; rounded; multiple responses possible) -

- Total
- Young people in training/ students
- Higher social classes
- Middle social classes
- Lower social classes
- Pensioners

Base 2013: 2,042 resp.

